Realm Splits Into Two

RatLab's Latest Plays

Can you dig it? +Mana +Hit points ----- 100 levels, only, build points limited... and it takes so many build points to do that. We take for granted in Finvarras Fortress how much we really have! And in Elphames Arena --- ouch. All of the Realm is in an uproar... The Realm's Elphames Arena has been launched.. anyone who gets to level 100 will win a flower baldric on the Finvarras Fortress. There are also house decorations to win and rings that change your shape into animals. The real idea here is very good though. I believe the idea is that Elphames Arena is more dream like - - and Finvarras Fortress less ephemeral - more corporeal... Even as it splits us Realmers into two, it does also give a breath of fresh air! It creates room and space for a new generation of Realmers. Also, I have learned in the Arena, Familiar is Troll, Proficient is Orc, and Expert is Daemon. That should be helpful to you all to know!

Bob Dobbs is found!

We found Bob Dobbs the other day! He was on the street corner selling little cupcakes! They were weed cupcakes! And they had a little kick to them! Everyone was happy! We bought them for 5.00 dollars. Also, he said to take them with this charm: "Magistrasha" - and then, we all went to the carnival. Except it was a carnival of the mind, we actually just went home. And in the mind, we saw a lot of toys and play things. We saw a toy horse. We saw a toy car. And all of these things were in our mind's eye! We could visualize anything we wanted! Bob's face! Bob's pipe! Also, we could block all visualizations if we wanted, to be calm... we could just sit there and breathe, you know, and not even be hungry or thirsty! We would just sit there and be happy. Happiness came and went in waves, but we knew Bob had our backs because of the cupcakes. Then in the morning, we all woke up. We saw that we could visualize better and better, see things from afar, clairvoyance. We asked Bob if it was the cupcakes that gave us these powers. He said no, it was God. We were happy. We went home. We saw that the visualizations could be drawn as well, in any kind of colors or gray or black and white. And also, we could shoot beams to our friends of images, videos, anything we were watching, if we so chose. Also, we could just meditate fine and dandy, by ourselves, and be just the happiest buddha you could ever imagine. All because of Bob's cupcakes. They were so good. They were the best I'd ever had. Cupcakes are the best. I tell you, especially, weed cupcakes.

"All we could do was eat his cupcakes, they were the finest of the land. The best cupcakes we ever had!!"

DEATH AND TAXES

Yes, the world is suffering right now. It has always been so. Covid is rampant, and the wealthy are going to be hit by a fifty percent tax on their profits... what is the world coming to, when the rich cannot afford a Starbucks every once in a while.

Everyone who has died, we will miss, but we must look to the future and plan well. We have hundreds of years ahead of us! Even thousands if you look beyond the veil! Everyone needs to learn the five obligonian strivings of Gurdjieff. With help from Northeon Forest.

NOTHING'S SURE BUT DEATH AND TAXES

The Five Being Obligonian Strivings are one of the Being Partkdolg Duties of our Work, along with Conscious Labor and Intentional Suffering. These five strivings are exercises that are meant to be actively pursued by all Seekers. The Five Being Obligonian Strivings of Ashiata Shiemash: And this took place as follows: "All the beings of that planet then began to work in order to have in their consciousness this divine function of genuine Conscience, and for this purpose, as everywhere in the Universe, they transubstantiated in themselves what are called the 'being-obligonian strivings' of which there are five, namely:

First Striving: "To have in their ordinary being-existence everything satisfying and really necessary for their planetary body."

Second Striving: "To have a constant and unflagging instinctive need for self-perfection in the sense of being."

Third Striving: "The conscious striving to know ever more and more concerning the laws of World-creation and World-maintenance."

Fourth Striving: "The striving from the beginning of their existence to pay for their arising and their individuality as quickly possible, in order afterwards to be free to lighten as much as possible the Sorrow of our Common Father."

Fifth Striving: "The striving always to assist the most rapid perfecting of other beings, both those similar to oneself and those of other forms, up to the degree of the sacred Martfotai, that is, up to the degree of self-individuality."

Realm Heaven

When something or someone dies, it goes to Heaven. This is the common understanding. In The Realm however, things just reappear! No one dies! It is understood that it is okay to die in The Realm, but The Realm is not real life. Also, the magic of The Realm works sometimes in real life, but not usually. Of all the things to do in The Realm, the best is the decorating of the home and lawn. They added the basement to the home as a new option, which is quite good. All your friends will love to come over to your basement! Everyone loves basements! Come over to my basement if you want. I will try to host guests as they come. Just /tell me. Also, on The Realm we try to help the newbies out. We try to give them a little extra gold or mana. We try to steer them on their way. They usually quit and think the game is horrible. But for every one that we lose, we probably gain another. In other words, everyone should just understand the history of The Realm in order to love it. It came from nothing! The game was originally made from Sierra's King's Quest and Space Quest, etc., all of those, games. Its engine and graphics were taken from them. In beta Realm it was quite different. We could fight anyone at any time, and also, you dropped all your possessions all at once if you died. There were no levels, like familiar, proficient, etc., but there was just like "Round Shield" and "Sword". There were also no skills at the beginning. When Realm 2.0 came out at first, we could attack the shop keepers even. But when things die, everyone is sad. It reminds us of our own mortality. We need to understand and support each other during these hard times, and remember that money is not everything... sex is not everything... and also control of others, is not everything. There are many other things to life, such as games, books, music, television shows, and also drugs. Those are the good things in life. To each his own! But I will remind you also of these three alcoholics anonymous sayings: "Live and let live." .... "First things first." .... And "Easy does it."

Biden's Push for Vaccinations

Everyone: hopefully those who make the vaccines know what they are doing! We might just get a vaccine and die of Covid because of it! We hope not! We side with the vaccinators, because they probably DO know what they are doing. They are probably wise to give all of the population this vaccine, because coronavirus was taking over! We have to fight back somehow! Also, they say keep socially distancing and wearing masks, because it is smart for you and for the others you meet. Stay strong and stay alive my friends!

Sex of "Bob"

"Bob" is not alone. "Bob" likes sex. "Bob" likes to have sex. But he does not have sex with minors. Otherwise, "Bob" is game. "Bob" loves to have sex. He and Connie get it on, and when they get it on, the cows go to town. The use of toys is not unheard of, nor is the use of pornography. But "Bob" needs neither toys nor porn to get it on, fellows! He knows exactly how to get it up, get it on, and get it good, if you know what I mean. He ultimately believes as Hermes Trismegistus, NEVER SPILL THE CUP!! DO NOT EJACULATE!! IT

IS BETTER TO JUST HAVE THE FOREPLAY THAN THE END IN TWO MINUTES!! Always, that is the fear. The premature ejaculation. Do not fear too much, just enjoy the sex and the intercourse. Have a good time, be friendly. Be gentle with yourselves and others. Do not rape others violently or trick them into sex. Do not pretend to be someone you are not in sex either. "Bob" hates people who do not love themselves enough. "Bob" also does not like people who do not stand up for themselves.

God the Word

Kybalion says "Words, words, words." Gods, gods, gods? No! This means that you do not understand. In John the Gospel it says "In the beginning was God the Word..." etc. This does not mean that God is only a word. Also, it should not mean that words are God. In my opinion, it is stressing the importance of words and yet, how, words are interchangeable or able to be modified—without changing the meaning of the word. Words and labels are pointers to things. As it is said in so many places, one may not drink the word "Water." One may not eat the words on the menu – they must order them. And finally, the map is not the territory. What John meant is a mystery, ultimately. Many things in Christianity are a mystery. It makes it more fun and gives us things to talk or think about.

Chaos and Order

A friend of mine long ago said that LSD made him see order in chaos and chaos in order. Shortly afterward, I came to the conclusion that chaos is merely unperceived order—since everything in the universe is orderly in some way, even if we do not understand it. Many things you think in the beginning may be used against you by psychic enemies. They might take this "chaos = order" idea of mine, and use it to blur things which might otherwise be easily noticed.

Defense in Backwards Word Magic

Backwards words, one may ask? Magical enemies actually may use any phrase, expression, or combination of letters, numbers, or words, to cast spells on someone. For some reason, backward or reverse words seem to stick in the subconscious and remain hidden from someone who has them implanted in their brains. There are multiple ideas here that need to be known. I believe knowing the strictest reverse form is the first and foremost thing to remember, if it has been used on one. Try not to go on a wild goose chase, getting every backward word that comes to mind. If one has real psychic enemies, they will use this to their advantage: making their real spells better and hiding important ones. Usually one may use their instinct or intuition to unravel any spell cast on them. It sort of appears murky yet tangibly, to one's inner sight. Here are some of the possibilities.. Sometimes evil will just say the first and last syllable backwards in a phrase, to make it work. Sometimes evil will make a funny phrase out of a word-and this is most common. They believe laughter fuels their implantation in the victim. Runes may be substituted as letters. There are other rules of thumb, but more on this in a future issue. To end a spell, being aware of it is the first step, and sometimes, it is the only thing required. Otherwise, one must know exactly how a spell operates or is cast-or is enacted. When one is unravelling a backwards spell, and one is trying to reverse it in one's mind, if one meets with resistance that is usually not there, or one's mind begins to jump around, that is a clue that it could be a real spell. All such spells need to be removed. This requires patience, but it is very worth your time. Also noteworthy, as any word or phrase, etc., may be used-it might require one to realize different forms of the same word, especially after one eliminates an actual spell. They might add "ing" or make it plural-but this is not infinitely extendable. There is a limit to how many times the same spell will work-with any possible words. They also work less once you have gotten them... it depends on what has been used on one.

Examples of Backwards Words

POSSESS - SSESS-OP

BERTILLON - NO-LIL-RUB

POSSESSES - SAY-SESS-OP

POSSESSING - ANY-SESS-OP

HEAD-DA-EH?

ENERGY - HE-GREEN-EE

ENERGETIC - KEY-TO-GREEN-EE

GERD - DREG

REMEMBER - RUB-ME-MORE

This website has been good for us.

If Ram Dass foundations say take it down, I will. Also, please it may save someone's life. Ram Dass said never make it about the money. Make it about the spirit. I believe that we can move mountains if we work together... even to cure the common cold and common flu for good if that was what was desired. These vaccinations have apparently been going on since December of 2020 so it only took a year's harvest to reap a vaccination from the world. We should take it seriously, I believe. ## Parallel Universes and Time Travel in Reality

The truth is always stranger than fiction. How can there be many realities—and only one reality? "How can there be many people in one world?" is a question to illuminate the previous question. We have learned around here that holding a sincere question as a center of gravity is very helpful in conversation. Really, though, how many worlds could there be? Would there be one, where one thing was different? Where two things were different? Where nothing was different? Infinitely many copies of one existence? Do you understand why I say "There is one universe, even if it is composed of parallel universes"? This "metaverse" idea can be merely "parallel metaverses"... it is a writer's trick. The truth is the truth. Reality is what you bump up against. There are harsh realities people. We have it really good and some people have it really bad. There are people who have it really bad and really do not know it. They could have it better, but there is probably really no way to help them. I do not know. All these reality questions and universe ponderings may be useful in an instant, and I may add, they may be useful in a moment, but in real time, and also appointment time: the leap second. LOL
