No one does anything, nobody has to do anything – everyone has free will to do – however. At one point, Ouspensky said, “You have already learned you may not be able to do anything. In fact, for the mechanical man, he happens and can only happen. But you, you have already learned how to do, you are already a little conscious – it is too late to go back! You have already tasted the good of the universe, the awesomeness of existence.

Everything follows from the light of the eye, the light of day, the light of fire, the light of electricity, the light in the darkness...

Realm Happenings and Stuff

ELLIS, CHAS

11/1/2020

The things that happened in The Realm are not a few in number. Since the addition of crafting master items, which will be explained shortly, we have been waiting on level 900 weapons and prestiging to level 4000. We are also eagerly anticipating a Unity client, in which we will be able to play The Realm Online on Android as well. Yes, to craft any armor you need to go to the Supply Store... buy an Armorsmithing Hammer at the skill level you want to create objects.

In olden times, I was playing in 2005 and we could craft all kinds of armors, but there were no familiar, proficient, expert, and master armor objects – split into Warlord, Wind Walker, Thaumaturgist, Elementalist, and Necromancer. There are six pieces of each as well: hat/helmet/cap/mask, cowl, shirt, pants, bands, and shoes. They may also be further enchanted by Realm magic. One may cast Enchant Item on an item and cast Empower next. This makes the item make its wearer stronger! It enchants the item with the power to make who wears it stronger! When an item is enchanted with Empower or Nimblity, the person who wears such an item, is stronger or faster!

THE FEDERAL RESERVE PRINTS THE MONEY. THE MONEY IS THEN GIVEN TO THE PEOPLE IN BANKS TO CIRCULATE TO THE PEOPLE AT LARGE. IT IS GIVEN SOMETIMES TO CERTAIN PEOPLE, AND IT GOES AROUND AND AROUND AND AROUND. THE MONEY IT JUST COMES WHEN YOU NEED IT, FROM AN ATM, OR YOU MAY USE A CHECK. YOU MAY USE ELECTRONIC BANK TRANSFERS (EBT'S). YOU MAY USE GIFT CARDS OR MONEY CARDS OR CREDIT CARDS OR DEBIT CARDS – CHIPS OR SWIPE! ALL THE MONEY IS IN THE BANKS, AND IT IS KEPT STRICTLY IN IMPORTANT SPREADSHEETS AND DATABASES. THE REAL VALUE IS THE CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN MONEY AND OBJECTS – THEY ARE RELATED THROUGH THE STOCK MARKETS OF THE WORLD, AND THE CURRENCY EXCHANGE QUORUMS, ETC. MONEY DOES NOT APPEAR OUT OF NOWHERE – IT IS A SOCIETAL AGREEMENT THAT CERTAIN THINGS ARE VALUED AT A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF CURRENCY. TO GET THIS MONEY, YOU MUST WORK, EARN, OR CREATE VALUE. YOU MAY GET A JOB AND WORK FOR SOMEONE ELSE. THEY WILL PAY YOU MONEY. MONEY, OTHERWISE, YOU MUST FIND IT IN THE STREET. RANDOMLY, ALL ALONE AT NIGHT, ON MAIN STREET. THE BROAD WAY. MORE MONEY

It’s not too bad that we are running low, we will at least have more in Heaven.. thank you. 😊

How “Bob” made his First Million Dollars

J.R. “BOB” DOBBS

Of all the things I ever did, the best thing, was making my first million dollars. It all started on a Sunday morning, when my wife, Connie, came in from another long Saturday night. She was working at Tom’s Diner at the time. She threw me a twenty and said, “Turn this into a million, Bob; once again, I need your help to make some money.” He got the twenty dollars. He went to Wal-Mart. He bought a bunch of strings. He got the strings together to make necklaces and bracelets. He sold the necklaces and bracelets to Wal-Mart. When Wal-Mart saw this new design “Bob” had designed, it got interested. It was a new type of necklace and bracelet they had never seen before. It was like a strong nylon, metal, and gold-like, metallic sheen that fascinated the Wal-Mart manager. They decided to buy my formula for ONE MILLION DOLLARS flat! I decided to sell it because I figured it would help people be less “possessed” by “evil” and also “more themselves” and also, it would help their matter, in their bodies, stay together, and be more comfortable. So, after I gave the million to Connie, she laughed. I smiled. I said, that’s the first million, I wonder where the second million will come! Connie said, “Bob I love you! Thanks a million!”

COVID-19 PANDEMIC 2020 UPDATECORONAVIRUS SUDDEN ACUTE
RESPIRATORY SYNDROME INFECTIOUS
DISEASE (COVID-19)DR. FAUCI

The coronavirus has killed around 2 million people in the entire world. Each country has faced an unexpected challenge from this disease. Many people have lost their friends and family. A lot of people are sad. People are depressed because they lost loved ones. This virus exacerbates breathing problems – it can kill those with pre-existing conditions – much easier than anyone else. The amount of exposure is very important to remember, and think about it: the more actual virus molecules at first one is exposed, the more cells are taken over by the virus to make more virus, before the immune system comes in to stop it, kill it, and destroy it – creating health in the wake.

Drink water, exercise, and eat healthy. You may recycle tap water in plastic water bottles...keeping them going in your refrigerator – cold, cold water. Brita is good, too. Other companies have made water pitchers or bottles – and those are good too probably. Good food? Genetically modified crops are not really that evil. I tell you the truth: they may even be good good. Organic stuff is great, if you like that sort of thing. Salad, green lettuce, Romaine, shredded, Caesar: all that is very good with salad dressing, especially. Also, caffeine and sugar are healthy for most people. Do not believe what you have read! You need to make your OWN decisions about these things for yourself. Diabetes is not caused by sugar, but by genetic malfunction.

Weight gain and tooth decay are associated with sugar: also parents think their kids act crazy when they get sugar. Use sugar wisely. It is much better than using it willy nilly. All things are better in moderation. Now, if you become a galloping consumption (see below) – you will see what you will get. That happens to people mechanically. It does not happen to a conscious person, pursuing an aim. It is obvious that without an ideal, without a goal, without an objective, one may not go very far. I suggest that respect each other's personal chemistry, and we do not ask what someone else is on, and also, we do not even care what someone else is doing, on, or what chemicals they like, love, hate, etc. Everyone is on their own ultimately, about this issue anyway. If not, there is no freedom.

GURDJIEFF EXCERPT FROM “MEETINGS WITH REMARKABLE MEN”

Meetings with Remarkable Men (pg. 85)

His sister’s galloping consumption

---

G.I. GURDJIEFF

---

The third incident occurred in Alexandropol, when my family had returned there for a short period and we were living again in our old house. Next door to us was my aunt’s house. One of the lodgings in her house had been let to a Tartar who worked for the local district government either as a clerk or a secretary. He lived with his old mother and his little sister and had recently married a handsome girl, a Tartar from the neighbouring village of Karadagh. Everything went well at first. Forty days after her marriage the young wife, according to the Tartar custom, went to visit her parents. But there, either she caught cold or something else happened to her, for when she returned she did not feel well, had to go to bed, and gradually became very ill. They gave her the best of care, but in spite of being treated by several doctors, among whom, I remember, were the town doctor, Resnik, and the former army doctor Keeltchevsky, the condition of the sick woman went from bad to worse. An acquaintance of mine, a doctor’s assistant, went every morning, by order of Dr. Resnik, to give her an injection. This doctor’s assistant, whose name I do not remember—I only remember that he was unbelievably tall—often dropped in to see us when I was at home. One morning he came in while my mother and I were drinking tea. We invited him to join us at the table and in the course of the conversation I asked him, among other things, how our neighbour was getting on. ‘She is very sick,’ he replied. ‘It is a case of galloping consumption and doubtless it will soon be “all over” with her.’ While he was still sitting there, an old woman, the mother-in-law of the sick woman, came in and asked my mother’s permission to gather some rose-hips in our little garden. In tears she told us how Mariam Ana—as the Tartars call the Virgin—had appeared that night to the sick woman in a dream and bade her gather rosehips, boil them in milk, and drink; and in order to calm her the old woman wished to do this. Hearing this, the doctor’s assistant could not help laughing. My mother of course gave her permission and even went to help her. When I had seen the assistant off I also went to help. What was my astonishment when, the next morning on my way to the market, I met the invalid with the old woman coming out of the Armenian church of Sev-Jiam, where there is a miraculous icon of the Virgin; and a week later I saw her washing the windows other house. Dr. Resnik, by the way, explained that her recovery, which seemed a miracle, was a matter of chance.

Buy a Windows computer, and Get The Realm

MEANONE

One may earn enough money to buy a computer. They buy a personal computer with Windows. The computer has a web browser included. Using this web browser, you set up the computer, as you like. Also, remember The Realm is free until level 1000!!! You may pay about $50 for a annual subscription for many things: hot zone experience boosts, Heroic caves (more experience and better treasure), and access to the Island of Avalon. Also, you may prestige to level 2000, and level 3000, if you become a Noble Citizen. You should do it!!! I do not recommend you jump in and get six accounts, but it is okay to do an account or a few accounts to level 3000 – we call it multiboxing.

On The Realm, we help each other. You will start out as a Human, Giant, Elf, or Orc – and you will either be Male or Female. Also, you need to choose a name carefully – one that represents who you are in real life is usually the best – or one that occurs to you loudly or makes you happy to be known to be known as that. Also, when choosing a name, have fun, but not too much fun: names that are shorter or simpler are sometimes better, because people can remember simpler and shorter names better – and they are able to type them more easily. One wants a strong name and a good name – a name that can be good or evil is also sometimes a great choice. Some names seem evil or seem goodly – really, a name is just a name!! Names are labels – and a rose by any other name – would smell just as sweet – as Shakespeare wrote. The handle is important though, so choose an awesome one – to carry you through to Realm Immortality. Thanks for reading!

THIS COULD BE YOU

JUST DO IT

Create your own character at <http://www.realmserver.com>

AFTERWORD(S):

Remember yourselves always and everywhere.

Try to do your best and improve upon yourself.

Perfect yourself, in your self-perfecting, be humble.

Get rid of your ego but make your ego super ego.

Do things you never thought possible – make them possible.

Cast spells with your hands, might, magic, intent, will, instantly!!!! Make them real!!!!!! DO IT TO IT!!! TCHIK!!!!

Also, remember the centers of the Work. Remember all things are true only for a time, only for a duration or period of time. Remember what you want to remember when you want to remember it. Use your memory wisely. Do things in order. Do things wisely. Use skillful means Ram Dass always said. If you smoke cigarettes, smoke them consciously. Smoke each puff wisely. Spark each cigarette with fervor. Do things poignantly. “All things became consecrated.” “And all your acts from now on will be consecrated.” “A new ruling from above: all acts will be consecrated.” – Be Here Now – All things are available to you, all ideas are available, and all threads and information is available on the Internet. Someone knows what you need to know. Someone knows what you want to know out there. Sometimes, it will take some money to get what you want to know. Sometimes, it will be free. Sometimes, you will not remember unless you pay! Pay now and pay a lot, to pay more later, pay pay pay, because it keeps everything moving!

E.J. Gold said people may pay differently (in Secret Talks with Mr. G.) – one may pay, he says, physically.... He or she may pay emotionally... or they may pay intellectually.... But pay you will!!! Paying attention is the only way you see – I heard it was the last generation’s watch phrase – “Pay attention” – because it is a “Paying Investment.” 😊

Money made is money lost, money lost is money made! Do not forget to do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. Think about things carefully, and make decisions with your wit, and not always your gut.

Love at first sight? Remember Indiana Jones? Indiana Jones finds the Holy Grail – to save his father’s life, Sean Connery – who passed around Halloween 2020—he has to pick the right cup. A previous man had gone with love at first sight – what happened? He drank the special water out of the wrong cup, and it killed him instantly. He was drained of life completely, by following his love at first sight. Indiana Jones goes in, and thinks, “Hmmm, Christ was a carpenter.” He finds a wooden cup that stuck out like a sore thumb amongst all the other golden cups...so he was pretty sure he chose wisely! The knight nods, and says, yep, you were the one I have been waiting centuries on, drinking that horrible tasting water and what not.

Also, going with your first instinct, thinking with your instinct, has its place – but should not be used exclusively to think. One may also think with their head! One may start thinking in head, chest, or legs... it’s weird to say it that way, but let me get away with it this time. 😊 One may think, feel, or sense – in their 1st, 2nd, or 3rd stories....we are like a three – storied factory – constantly fuming, constantly making facts, constantly processing, constantly digesting.... Etc. Gooooood luck!

Thanks for reading!
